Refund Policy and Procedures - International Students

"It is the policy of Century Private School to issue a refund for tuition and other applicable fees only upon the receipt of a rejection letter for a Visa and/or Study Permit from the Canadian mission to which the application was made."

The application fee of $300.00, registration fee of $500.00, and $2,850.00 of tuition are non-refundable.

No refund will be made for the tuition fee and other applicable fees for international students under the following circumstances:

1. After the receipt of a Canadian Visa and/or Study Permit.
2. The student withdraws for any reason other than the Study Permit is rejected by Global Affairs Canada.
3. The student's immigration status changes (including becoming a Permanent Resident) during the school year.
4. The student violates school regulations and is being asked to withdraw from school.
5. Failure to disclose and/or provision of false or misleading relevant information affecting the student's learning development and wellbeing.
6. The safety of all children is our primary concern. The provision of our service is conditional on both your child's behavior and your treatment of the school and its staff. Behavior that poses a safety hazard for the other children or the staff will not be accepted and could result in immediate withdrawal of service.

Note: No partial refund will be issued in the case of late arrival, withdrawals, holidays, sick days, or days missed for any reason throughout the academic year.

Exceptional Circumstances:

Century Private School understands there may be exceptional circumstances regarding a student's continuing study at the school. For further information about exceptional circumstances, please contact the school directly.

Refund Request:

A refund request upon Study Permit rejection must include:

1. The original letter of refusal from Global Affairs Canada.
2. A written refund request signed by the parent/guardian. Note: A request signed by an agent or other person will not be accepted.

Note: The refund will be issued 30 days after receipt of the written refund request, to the person originally providing the tuition fee payment.

I have read and understand the student fee schedule, refund policy and conditions contained therein.
